3-WEEK CLASSES

Hand Lettering

with Emily Christensen

Tuesdays, Jan 24th - Feb 7th // 6th-12th grade

3:30-5:30

Learn the basic anatomy of letters and how to add serifs, flourishes, and personal touches to your work, using flat brushes, round brushes, metal nibs, and reed pens with inks and water colors.

Woodburning & Encaustic Wax

with Emily Christensen

Wednesdays, Jan 25 - Feb 8th // 8th-12th grade

3:30-5:30

Encaustics (a mixture of wax, pigment, and a hardener that are melted before applying) have been used over 2000 years to create subtle layers of transparent and opaque colors that can incorporate etching or collaged elements.

Intro to Animation

with Joshua Villanueva

Tuesdays, Jan 24th - Feb 7th // 6th - 12th grade

3:30-5:30

In this 3-wk class, Joshua will introduce the basic principles of animation, such as squash & stretch through impact, timing of movement, and the different types of animation and their proper usage. We'll be using Procreate on our new iPad Pro's, thanks to a generous grant from the family of Jillian Parker! Josh will also briefly touch on other free animation programs like Blender and Krita, which he uses for his retro-inspired drawings and animations. Whether you're new to animation or want to stretch your skills by working alongside others, we hope you'll join us!

Beats & Brushes

with Duncan Kamara-Hagemeyer

& Sam Wolthuis

Thursdays, Jan 26th - Feb 9th // 6th-12th grade

3:30-5:30

Music and Art have worked in tandem with one another for centuries, and we'll explore that intersection in this 3-wk class. We'll transliterate instrumental music into abstract imagery using acrylic paints, paint markers, and collage on canvas. Inspired by the experimental side of hip hop, musical curation will be led by Sam Wolthuis, who makes & sells beats under the name dontknowmorgan. Duncan is a CultureWorks SAC alum and both Duncan and Sam are students at Hope College.

Drawing

with Cassidy Stock

Thursdays, Jan 26th - Feb 9th // 6th - 12th grade

3:30-5:30

Get nerdy about color palettes, perspective drawing, how to use light, shadow and more, with painter Cassidy Stock. Come ready to be inspired and take on the 3D world with just pencil, paper and your imagination.

Graphic Design: Sticker Edition

with Suzy Parker

Mondays, Jan 23rd - Feb 6th // 6th - 12th grade
