A Weekly Listing of Diversity and Multicultural Events
From the Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony:
"Diversity, Unity, and Justice Are at the Heart of ACEH"

Links to resources specially compiled for Black History Month are in the Anti-racism, Race, and Ethnicity section. listed below

ACEH was founded in Holland in 1999 and is committed to justice, equal opportunity, cross-cultural understanding, and appreciation for diversity. Members work together to make West Michigan a place where all people are welcomed and respected. "In the Community" is also on the ACEH website www.harmonyalliance.org Check us out under Groups on Facebook, at ACEH – Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony.

Our "Half-Year Annual Report: Looking Back and Moving Forward": ACEH Report,

Dear Readers, your financial support will help us publish "In the Community" next year, provide various kinds of resources, present programs, and--we hope--host our two diverse community gatherings that create connections and friendships in West Michigan. Will you join us as a first-time member? We'll warmly welcome you! If you've been a member in the past, will you consider renewing with ACEH? We would greatly appreciate it.

Dues are $20 ($35 for 2 years) for an individual; $30 ($50 for two years) for a couple or family; $40 for a nonprofit group, and $75 for a business. ACEH is a 501(c)3 organization. Please go to www.harmonyalliance.org and click on Membership.

Much appreciation to the panelists at the February 21 ACEH event "Exploring Vaccine Skepticism with the Black Community" with Gerald Griffin, Ph.D.; Alethia Johnson, MSN; Peter Knoester, MD; Derik Chia, epidemiologist, and host Viola Jackson. Lots of thought-provoking and valuable information shared and questions answered.

The program was recorded by our partner, the Holland Museum, and is available on its YouTube channel: Check it out: Here's the link to view the program

ACEH president C. J. Kingdom-Grier recently was interviewed by Carolyn Monaghan of the Michigan West Coast Chamber of Commerce on the topic "How Can Businesses Promote Workplace Inclusivity in an Authentic Way?" He is CEO of Kingdom-Grier & Associates and a nationally certified diversity trainer. Click here to listen in on the discussion.

> next generation; film "follows mentors, parents, and youth making their way in a world where systemic forces raise obstacles to following their dreams." Sponsored by Holland Human Relations Commission. Register here for the link to stream the film. TONIGHT, Feb 24, 7 pm: Filmmaker and co-director of "River City Drumbeat" Mason Johnson will do a live Q&A with the Human Relations Commission (register at link above for this discussion).

TODAY through Sat, Feb 27: Exhibit: "Black Heroes and History: Student Selections from the KAM Collection." Pop-up exhibit created by Black Student Union at Hope College with the Kruizenga Art Museum. Admission is free. Masks and social distancing required; groups of more than 6 should contact museum. https://hope.edu/arts/kam/index.html The museum is at 271 College Ave, Holland.

Fri, Feb 26, 2 pm: "Light for the World to See: A Conversation with Kwame Alexander, poet, educator, and award-winning author, "brings attention to the experiences of Black lives in America through his writings, in verse, which have been called 'a rap session on race." His newest book is "Light for the World to See: A Thousand Words on Race and Hope." His virtual visit to Hope College in conjunction with Black History Month is hosted by NEA Big Read Lakeshore, Black Student Union, Center for Diversity and Inclusion, Jack Ridl Visiting Writers Series, and others. Here's the link to register.

Feb 26 and 27, 7:30 pm; Feb 28, 2 pm; March 4, 5, 6, at 7:30 pm: Livestream of the play "Detroit '67" by Dominique Morisseau. Presented by Hope College Theatre Department. Virtual tickets are free and open to all but pre-registration is required Click here to Register

Mon, March 1, 10 am - 11:30 am: Solidarities: White Women and Women of Color's Activism to Secure the Vote. Part of 12th annual Local History Roundtable: Leading the Charge for Change; virtual event hosted by the Kutsche Office of Local History, Brooks College, GVSU. The Nineteenth Amendment ostensibly provided women the right to vote, but Black, Indigenous, women of color remained disenfranchised. Presentation will place women's suffrage in conversation with the broader movement toward civil rights for BIPOC. Presenters are nationally recognized scholars Liette Gidlow and Allison Lange together with Sophia Brewer and Jo Ellyn Clarey from the Greater Grand Rapids Women's History Council. Register here.

Thurs, March 4, 7 pm: "Fair Housing: A Historical Overview." Dr. Fred Johnson, associate professor of history at Hope College, and Liz Keegan of the Fair Housing Center of West Michigan share "a history of how housing segregation and discriminatory housing policies such as redlining continue to impact us all--in many ways--today." Presented by the Holland Museum in its Cultural Lens Series. Free; donations appreciated. Register at this link.
