

In the Community, March 31, 2021

A Weekly Listing of Diversity and Multicultural Events
From the Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony:
 "Diversity, Unity, and Justice Are at the Heart of ACEH"

ACEH was founded in Holland in 1999 and is committed to justice, equal opportunity, cross-cultural understanding, and appreciation for diversity. Members work together to make West Michigan a place where all people are welcomed and respected. "In the Community" is also on the ACEH website www.harmonyalliance.org Check us out under Groups on Facebook, at ACEH – Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony. Our "Half-Year Annual Report: Looking Back and Moving Forward" is available at ACEH Report.

Dear Readers, your financial support will help us publish "In the Community" next year, provide various kinds of resources, present programs, and--we hope--host our two diverse community gatherings that create connections and friendships in West Michigan. Will you join us as a first-time member? We'll warmly welcome you! If you've been a member in the past, will you consider renewing with ACEH? We would greatly appreciate it.

Dues are $20 ($35 for 2 years) for an individual; $30 ($50 for two years) for a couple or family; $40 for a nonprofit group, and $75 for a business. ACEH is a 501(c)3 organization. Please go to www.harmonyalliance.org and click on Membership.

Thank you! to renewing member Belinda Coronado and to Nicole Mosterd for your monthly contribution to ACEH.

Humanities: Art, Music

Art Exhibit: Now through May 23. "Our Voice" Celebrating the Coretta Scott King Book Awards: African American Children's Literature: A Timeless Legacy. Original artworks by past award winners. <https://muskegonartmuseum.org/> At Muskegon Museum of Art, 296 W. Webster, Ave, Muskegon.

Music: The debut album of jazz saxophonist Dr. Jordan VanHemert of the Hope College music faculty, "I Am Not A Virus," his response to racism, was issued this month on Big Round Records/PARMA Recordings. Drawing on his Korean American heritage, the album is in part a response to prejudice and persecution that Asian Americans have experienced during the COVID-19 pandemic but explores other topics, including the police killings and Black Lives Matter protests of 2020; it includes an arrangement of a traditional Korean song "Arirang" (My Beloved One).

Community Opportunities

(1) Redistricting in Michigan: The 13-person Michigan Independent Citizens Commission will be drawing the boundary lines for our legislative districts, and can use your input. If you are a member of a community of interest (a population in a geographic area that shares cultural, historical, or economic interests), and you think the legislative districts in your area have divided your group and diluted your influence with your elected representatives, then you may want to testify before the Michigan Independent Citizens Commission. To learn about what's involved in testifying, contact Tina Pawlak at tina.pawlak@gmail.com or Lena Del Real at lenadelreal@gmail.com. The League of Women Voters of the Holland Area will share its guides for an effective presentation and access to mapping software to draw the boundaries of your community. Find out more on Thursday, April 22, at 7 p.m., when the Holland League partners with the Holland Museum in a virtual Town Hall. Click here to Register

(2) Community Action House Food Boxes: CAH, with community contributions, has distributed thousands of food boxes over the past year. There's still a need, and a practical way for you to help. Click here. for information on how to what to buy and how to pack Basic, Latinx, and Asian food boxes.

(3) Become a Holland Museum volunteer! The Museum is looking for adults of all ages to tour visitors through the museum galleries or historic homes; engage with families as they explore, invent, and have fun in the Spark!Lab Smithsonian; assist staff in the museum and at public programs. Contact Michelle Stempien at (616) 796-3324 or michelle@hollandmuseum.org
