Kristen Slotman grew up in small towns throughout the Midwest. Kristen attended Hope College where she majored in Chemistry Secondary Education, minored in Physics, and participated in the women's basketball program for all four years. She has been working at Holland High School since 2014 when she student-taught with Carl VanFaasen. For the past 9 years, Kristen has enjoyed teaching a variety of different Physics classes and Aerospace Engineering. This past year, Kristen received her Master's of Education in Positive Coaching and Athletic Leadership from the University of Missouri. Outside of the classroom, Kristen delights in coaching basketball and supporting her students by attending plays, sports, and concerts.

Here's To You, Holland High!

*Here's to you, Holland High,
for the memories we hold dear
and the friends that we won't soon forget.*

*Holland High, filled with pride
sing our song of praise we bring,
loud our cry, far and wide, true to you.*

*And though we may venture far from you,
we'll always call you Home.*

*Here's to you, Holland High,
for we'll remember you.*
