

In the Community, September 30, 2020

A Weekly Listing of Diversity and Multicultural Events
 From the Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony:
 "Diversity, Unity, and Justice Are at the Heart of ACEH"

ACEH was founded in Holland in 1999 and is committed to justice, equal opportunity, cross-cultural understanding, and appreciation for diversity. Members work together to make West Michigan a place where all people are welcomed and respected. "In the Community" is also on the ACEH website www.harmonyalliance.org Check us out under Groups on Facebook, at ACEH – Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony. (You're invited to support ACEH through membership. Information on how to do that is at the end of this email.)

*Many thanks to renewing member Linda Den Uyl and donor Susan Slajus!

Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated from Sept 15 to Oct 15. Registration and Voting Information

To be eligible to register to vote you must be:

- A Michigan resident (at the time you register) and a resident of your city or township for at least 30 days (when you vote)
- A United States citizen
- At least 18 years of age (when you vote)
- Not currently serving a sentence in jail or prison

You can register when you are 17.5 years old, but you can't vote until you're 18.

Use link in next paragraph for info about where to register.

The Michigan Secretary of State has an amazing site of links to all kinds of information about what's on the ballot; how, when, and where to register to vote; how, when, and where to apply for an absentee ballot; locations of drop boxes, tracking your ballot, accessible voting; voting in person; locations of polling places-- official answers to just about any voting-related question you can think of. Here's the link: Michigan Voter Information Center

Voting by absentee ballot: When you've completed AND signed your ballot, you can return it to your city or township clerk's office; you can mail it in (do this early!), or you can place it in a secured drop box that's been set up to receive absentee ballots. Here's the link to these boxes in Ottawa County

The League of Women Voters offers this Voters Guide, with links to information on what's on the ballot and other information, in English and en español.

<https://www.vote411.org/search-by-topic>

You can vote in person on Tuesday, November 3rd. Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. See the link above for locations of polling places.

Thank you to Christina Pawlak, voter services chair for the Holland League of Women Voters, for sharing these links.

Exhibits

Through Thurs, Oct 15: Virtual exhibit "Luis Sahagun: Lo Que Grita Mi Piel" ("That Which My Skin Screams") explores race through alternative Latinx narratives. Sahagun was born in Guadalajara in 1982; brought to the U.S. as a child; and naturalized in 1995 under President Reagan's Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. He has participated in multiple invitational and national exhibits, worked as a teaching artist, and is artist-in-residence/visiting professor for Critical Race Studies at Michigan State University.

Through Sat, Nov 21: Exhibits (1) Black Lives Matter, Black Culture Matters: 50 artworks "that address African American history and culture from Civil War to the present; to provide historical context for Black Lives Matter protests against systemic racism in criminal justice, education, jobs, health care, housing. It is also a celebration of Black culture and the many ways that Black culture has enriched American life over the past two centuries." (2) Resistance and Revival in 20th-Century Yoruba Art. <https://hope.edu/arts/kam/exhibitions/index.html> 395-6400 Public hours: Thurs/Fri 1 pm to 4 pm and Sat 10 am to 4 pm. At KruiZenga Art Museum, 271 Columbia Ave, Holland.
